Nashville, TN (9/1/11) – Justin Haigh's, (pronounced Haig), star continues to rise on radio and now on TV, as his debut country video/single, "All My Best Friends (are Behind Bars)," celebrates a World Premiere on GAC-TV Friday September 2, at 5:40 PM EST.

Haigh's brand of real country reflects the good-time, devil-may-care, lifestyle and attitude of young bucks who take things a little too far from time-to-time. "I'm real excited to receive this level of acceptance from GAC," begins Justin Haigh, discussing his video, "and Jim [Shea] really knocked this one out of the park! I think country fans will get a glimpse of who I am as a person, as well as an artist on this one. The video is lighthearted and fun, like the song, and I feel that "People Like Me" will definitely relate."

The video was directed by Grammy-winner Jim Shea, who also directs, James Taylor, Brad Paisley and Barbra Streisand and was shot in and around Austin, Texas.

Music Row magazine's Robert K. Oermann reviewed the single declaring, "he has a really cool voice, full of drawled resonance and honky-tonk authority. The drinking song is as cool as its title implies, and the band is country, country, country. An absolute winner."

Justin Haigh's album People Like Me features the single, "All My Best Friends (are Behind Bars)" and appears on Apache Ranch Records.
